- Strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships; and
- Send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

CHIPOTLE POTATO SALAD

INGREDIENTS

4 large russet potatoes, or 2 1/2 pounds, peeled and thinly sliced
Salt
2 chipotles in adobo sauce, chopped, plus 2 tablespoons of sauce
3 tablespoons orange marmalade
3 tablespoons orange juice
3 tablespoons red wine vinegar
3 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil. eyeball it
1 small red onion or 1/2 large, chopped
Handful chopped cilantro leaves, 2 tablespoons
Couple sprigs fresh oregano, finely chopped (or a couple pinches dried)
Salt and pepper

DIRECTIONS

Place potatoes in a pot and cover with water. Bring water to a boil and season water liberally with salt and cook the potatoes until just fork tender, 8 to 9 minutes.
Combine chipotles, sauce, marmalade, juice, vinegar in a bowl then whisk in the extra-virgin olive oil.
Drain the potatoes well, return them to hot pot to let water evaporate, then add immediately to dressing. The dressing will be better absorbed by warm taters. Toss with onions and herbs and season the salad with salt and pepper, to taste. Serve warm or chill. Drizzle a little more extra-virgin olive oil over the salad if it gets dry.
